Happy Holidays from Councilman Kersey

On behalf of the District Five staff, I would like to wish you the very best this holiday season. We have a lot to celebrate as 2015 comes to a close. We made great strides toward our efforts to Rebuild San Diego. In 2016, I will continue to work hard to make sure the momentum of the past year does not wane. Below are some citywide and district-specific accomplishments of which I am particularly proud.

Citywide Accomplishments

- Started working on new 3-1-1 system
- Proposed Rebuild San Diego infrastructure financing measure
- Created City's first multi-year capital plan
- Completed first city-wide sidewalk assessment
- Conducted city-wide facility assessment
- Approved Vision Zero resolution
- Increased hours at local recreation centers
- Adopted Zero Waste plan
- Approved Climate Action Plan

District Five Accomplishments

- Deployed new speed trailers in District 5 neighborhoods
- Broke ground on new Black Mountain Ranger Station
- Opened new trails Black Mountain Open Space Park
- Installed new Rancho Bernardo welcome sign
- Made pedestrian safety improvements at Rancho Bernardo Road & Acena Dr.
- Repaired the roof and installed new HVAC system at the Rancho

Christmas Tree Recycling

When you're done "decking the halls," the City of San Diego offers free Christmas Tree recycling December 26-January 23. There are several drop off points in District Five for residential customers. The locations are listed below.

Rancho Bernardo
Recreation Center
18448 West Bernardo
Dr.

Peñasquitos Library

- Renovated kitchen at Fire Station 40 in Rancho Peñasquitos
- Installed smart controllers at six parks in Scripps Ranch
- Completed Poway Road bike path in Sabre Springs
- Resurfaced playground at Carmel Mountain Ranch Recreation Center

Again, hope everyone has a great holiday and very happy New Year.

Sincerely,

Councilman Mark Kersey
City of San Diego - Fifth District

Canyonside
Recreation Center
12350 Black Mountain
Rd.

Scripps Ranch
Recreation Center
11454 Blue Cypress
